Bill Analysis

SB 1680 provides that territory may be detached from the corporate limits of a municipality when the governing municipality has defunded the police department at least once within the previous 2 years. The provisions of this measure shall not apply to municipalities with a budget of 10% less than the previous year. Municipalities shall be prohibited from annexing the territory that seceded unless the budget of the police department is the same or exceeds what it was before it was defunded.
