Bill Analysis

SB 33 directs the State Legislature to meet on the third Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each year next preceding the expiration of the term of office of each President of the United States to elect a number of electors for President and Vice President equal to the number of United States Senators and United States Representatives which the state is entitled to elect. The provisions of this measure shall cease to be in effect and revert to current laws guiding the selection of electors on the effective date of a federal law that requires security measures for elections including, but not limited to, voter identification requirements and the use of auditable paper ballots.
