Bill Analysis

SB 366 modifies testing requirements for drivers with a restricted license charged with driving while impaired or under the influence. The measure provides for the Department of Public Safety to restore a license if there have been no reportable violations for 60 consecutive days prior to the date of the release for a 180 day modification, 120 consecutive days prior to the date of the release for a 1 year modification, and 1 year prior date of the release for a 3 year modification. The measure also provides for participants in the Impaired Driver Accountability Program to withdraw or be removed from the program. Any person who withdraws from the program shall have his or her driving privileges immediately revoked.
