Bill Analysis

The FS for SB 385 authorizes a retail spirits licensee to host alcoholic beverage tastings for consumers on its licensed premises provided the conditions outlined in the measure are met. Servings shall be limited, on the licensee's premises, poured from original containers, supervised by the licensee, and served only to persons 21 years of age or older. Licensees are directed to maintain records of any samples served. The licensee shall not permit any alcoholic beverages content or retail container unsealed in connection with sampling to remain on the licensed premises at the close of the business on that day.
