Bill Analysis

The CS for SB 683 removes the requirement for full-time nonclassified optional personnel to have been regularly employed for a full year before joining the Teachers' Retirement System. The CS also provides for all nonclassified optional personnel regularly employed for 20 hours or more per week to be enrolled in the System upon hiring. Such persons may opt out of the System within 30 days of hiring. The opt out shall be irrevocable, unless the person is later hired into a classified position.
