Bill Analysis

The FS for SB 715 changes the measured distance at which it is prohibited to electioneer from the ballot box to the entrance of the polling place or a person who is standing in line to vote outside the polling place or voting site. The measure also specifies that voters registered and voting at the precinct are the only such persons allowed in the polling place and provides for minors accompanying their parents or guardians to enter the polling place. The measure also defines electioneer and election enclosure. The FS clarifies that an absentee voting site shall be considered a voting site as it relates to electioneering.
