Bill Analysis

The CS for SB 841 authorizes manufacturers of alcoholic beverages owning more than 15% of the stock of retail licensee to have a financial interest in the premises. The retailer may not sell any product produced by such a manufacturing operation. The CS also provides that out-of-state manufacturers shall not be prohibited from having any ownership interest in an Oklahoma licensed retailer if the Oklahoma retailer that is commonly owned by a manufacturer or brewer does not offer for sale at its Oklahoma retail locations any beer, wine or spirits that are made by the manufacturer or brewer within or outside this state.
