

Fiscal Impact
2nd Session of the 57th Legislature

Bill No.:

HB 2236

Version:

ENGR

Author:

Sen. Weaver

Date:

Fiscal Analysis

HB 2236 creates a felony for failing to report a material change in income to an employer, insurance carrier, or third party administrator while receiving temporary total disability benefits. It also modifies the requirements for personnel hired as specialized law enforcement officers of the Attorney General's Workers' Compensation Fraud Investigation Unit. The fiscal impact of HB 2236 is contingent upon the number of convictions and the sentences imposed.
