Fiscal Analysis

HB 2691 directs the Commission for Educational Quality and Accountability to issue a certain report regarding high school graduation rates, college and career assessment scores, how to reduce remediation rates and career readiness and the ability for new graduates to find in state employment. This bill would result in the need to either add these duties to a current employee or hire a person part time, or contract with an individual just to assist in this report.

FY'22 Impact: $5,000.00-$30,000.00

Full Year Impact: $5,000.00-$30,000.00
