2nd Session of the 57th Legislature

Bill No.:

Fiscal Analysis

SB 1377 would allow the board of regents of Oklahoma colleges to issue certain obligations. This would have an administrative cost to RUSO but the fiscal impact to the institutions would come at the time of each bond issuance. The cost of the providers used to issue bonds would include bond counsel, financial advisors, underwriter's counsel and rating agencies as examples. The actual cost would be incurred at the time of issuance and presumably would be shared among the participating institutions.
