Fiscal Analysis

SB 456 SB 456 adds inmates convicted on counts relating to child abuse or neglect, as well as inmates convicted of exploitation of a vulnerable adult to the list of persons deemed ineligible to be placed in the Electronic Monitoring Program. Per DOC, currently those convicted of child abuse and exploitation of vulnerable adults are not eligible for electronic monitoring. Additionally, there are few, if any, on GPS who have been convicted of child neglect and the related crime of financial exploitation of the elderly.
