Research Analysis

The PCS1 to HB 3718 allows a sheriff to have the authority to arrest any person, including, but not limited to, a superintendent, principal, administrator, teacher, school nurse, board member of the education district, university staff, or other school staff for requiring a vaccination against COVID-19 as a condition of admittance to or attendance of the school or institution; or for requiring a vaccine passport as a condition of admittance or attendance, or for implementing a mask mandate for students who have not been vaccinated against COVID-19. The measure prohibits any person, including a superintendent, principal, administrator, teacher, school nurse, board member of the education district, university staff, or other school staff from requiring a vaccination, vaccine passport, or implementing a mask mandate for students who have not been vaccinated against COVID-19. Any person who directly or indirectly violates these provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $500 for the first offense. The penalty for a second offense is a fine of $500, imprisonment for up to 10 days in the county jail, or both fine and imprisonment.
