Research Analysis

The proposed committee substitute for HB 2791 defines the term playground, as it relates to outdoor advertising and signs, to mean an outdoor space that contains permanent playground equipment where the primary use is for children to play. The measure excludes playground equipment on privately owned residential property and equipment that is an accessory use to a commercial enterprise.

Fiscal Analysis

HB 2791 adds a definition for the term "playground" to the state statute related to outdoor advertising definitions. This measure excludes playground equipment located on privately-owned residential property and equipment that is used by a commercial enterprise. This measure has no direct fiscal or revenue considerations for the state.
