Research Analysis

HB 3309 lowers the fee assessed against persons convicted of failure to yield and who causes a fatality or great bodily injury from $1,000 to $500 and requires that the fee be assessed and deposited in the Motorcycle Safety and Education Program Revolving Fund. Any person convicted of failure to yield and who causes a serious bodily injury may be assessed a fee of $500 to be deposited in the Motorcycle Safety and Education Program Revolving Fund. In addition to the assessment of fees, the court may require the offender to participate in a remedial driving course, the loss of driving privileges for 90 days, or the payment of restitution of between $3,000 to $10,000.

Fiscal Analysis

This measure lowers from $1,000 to $500 a certain fee that is assessed and deposited into the Motorcycle Safety and Education Program Revolving Fund. Annual collections of this fee are as follows:

Annual Collections Affected by HB3309
Year	Amount
2019	$148
2020	$0
2021	$10
2022	$0
2023	$0

Based on the past 5 year's of annual collections, the average amount deposited into the fund is $31 annually. The total amount of fees collected pursuant to the offense in this measure are already lower than the statutory amount to be assessed, and a reduction to that amount is expected to have a minimal impact on overall collections. Therefore, in its current form, HB3309 is not anticipated to have a material impact on state budget or appropriations.
