Bill Analysis

HB 3304 authorizes the plan sponsor of a health benefit plan to provide consent to the mailing of all communications related to the plan by electronic means on behalf of covered persons enrolled in the plan. The sponsor must confirm that the covered person routinely uses electronic communications and inform such persons that information relating to the plan shall be delivered by electronic means. The insurance carrier must inform covered persons of the types of notices and documents that may be delivered, the rights of covered persons to withdraw consent for such deliveries, the procedures the covered persons must follow, and the right to receive documents free of charge.
