Bill Analysis

SB 414 modifies the membership of the Oklahoma Commission on the Status of Women. The number of members is reduced from 30 to 13 and provides that each member shall serve a term of 3 years instead of 5 years. The Governor, President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the House, Executive Director of the Oklahoma Department of Commerce, Director of the Department of Corrections, and District Attorneys Council shall appoint members to the Commission. Such members must be appointed by the appointing agency no later than January 1, 2024.
