Bill Analysis

SB 706 provides that upon a demand for a trial by jury, the court shall issue a scheduling order within 30 days as it pertains to a proceeding to terminate parental rights. The trial shall commence within 6 months of the issuance of the scheduling order unless the court issues a written order with findings of fact supporting a determination that there exists an exceptional circumstance to support the delay or that the parties and the guardian ad litem, if any, agree to such continuance.

CCR Changes

The Conference Committee Report for SB 706 completely replaces engrossed language with the language described above.
