Research Analysis

The proposed committee substitute for HB1825 requires a county treasurer to provide a property tax bill for any property sold to an entity that is exempt from paying property tax within 10 days of receiving a written request from the seller. The requirement to provide the tax bill is retroactive to property sales occurring on or after January 1, 2023.

Fiscal Analysis

In its current form, HB1825 requires the county treasurer to provide certain information if such information is requested by a seller of property. As this measure provides administrative proposals at the county level, HB1825 is not expected to impact state revenues or state appropriations.
