Research Analysis

HB1825 requires a county treasurer to provide a property tax bill for any property sold to a entity that is exempt from paying property tax when requested by the seller. The requirement to provide the tax bill is retroactive to property sales occurring on or after January 1, 2022.

Prepared By: Quyen Do

Fiscal Analysis

HB1825, as introduced, provides procedure related to the sale of real property to entities exempt from taxation. As this measure provides administrative proposals at the county level, HB1825 is not expected to impact state revenues or state appropriations.
