By: McBride

AS INTRODUCED

An Act relating to schools; directing the Oklahoma State Department of Education to develop or acquire and implement certain threat intervention training program; identifying who the program shall be designed for; directing that the program use certain approach; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 24-100.9 of Title 70, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

The Oklahoma State Department of Education shall develop or acquire and implement a training program designed to help school staff and faculty identify a potential threat and provide an opportunity to intervene and support a student on a path to violence at the school. The training program shall be for staff and faculty at the middle school through high school levels in all Oklahoma Districts. The training program must include a research-based approach and incorporate predictive analytics to efficiently

1 identify, analyze, classify, and deescalate threats of targeted
2 violence to designated school leaders and administrators so that
3 appropriate interventions can be utilized to prevent violence.

4 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2024.
