20 provided at the time of purchase, or
21 d. ticket is not made available prior to the event.

22 2. Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this subsection, a nonprofit
23 organization may offer the choice to donate the cost of the 24 admission ticket to the nonprofit organization, exchange to another

1 performance or event, or receive a refund subject to the terms of
2 the organization's refund policy.

3 3. The venue shall provide contact information for the Attorney
4 General if the purchaser presents an invalid ticket.

5 4. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to alter any 6 rights or obligations under federal payment card laws including, but 7 not limited to, Regulation E of 12 C.F.R., Part 1005.

8 D. No person, resale platform, reseller, or operator of any 9 website purporting to sell or offer for sale event tickets shall:

10 1. Use or display, without authorization, the name, mark, logo,
11 likeness, or intellectual property of an artist, venue, or event
12 organizer in promotional materials, social media, or advertisement;

13 2. Imply affiliation or endorsement with a venue, team, or 14 artist, including the use of the word "official", unless authorized
15 in writing; or

16 3. Engage in commercial representations that are reasonably
17 likely to mislead consumers.

18 E. Any violation of this act shall constitute an unfair or 19 deceptive trade practice and shall be subject to the provisions of 20 the Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act.

21 F. Any aggrieved person may bring a civil action for actual 22 damages and restitution. The court may award court costs and 23 attorney fees to a prevailing party.

1 G. Nothing in this act shall be construed to include sports in
2 the provisions of this act.

3 SECTION 5. This act shall become effective November 1, 2026.
