7 concerning real property required to be kept by the county clerk of 8 any county shall be available for inspection or copying in 13 records but may establish reasonable procedures which protect the 14 integrity and organization of its records and to prevent excessive

15 disruptions of its essential functions. A delay in providing access 16 to records shall be limited solely to the time required for 17 preparing the requested documents and the avoidance of excessive
18 disruptions of the public body's essential functions. In no event
19 may production of a current request for records be unreasonably 20 delayed until after completion of a prior records request that will 21 take substantially longer than the current request. Any public body 22 which makes the requested records available on the Internet shall 23 meet the obligation of providing prompt, reasonable access to its 24 records as required by this paragraph;

1       7. A public body may require a requestor to complete a records
2 request form. If a records request does not describe the requested 3 records with reasonable specificity, a public body may ask the 4 requestor to clarify the request. To have reasonable specificity, a 5 request shall:

- 6           a. specify a general time frame within which the 7                requested records would have been created or 8                transmitted,
- 9           b. seek identifiable records, rather than general
10               information without any qualifiers or other 11               specifications, and
- 12           c. include search terms that are sufficiently specific to 13               assist the public body in identifying the requested 14               records.

15       If a public body has engaged with the requestor to seek the 16 information needed to fulfill the request and to identify the 17 records sought by the requestor, including providing the requestor 18 with general topics or a specific list of records related to the 19 request, the request may be denied if it is still not reasonably 20 specific; and

21       8. A public body shall designate certain persons who are 22 authorized to release records of the public body for inspection, 23 copying, or mechanical reproduction. At least one person shall be 24

1 available at all times to release records during the regular 2 business hours of the public body.
