2 BILL NO. 625

By: Howard of the Senate

3 and

4 Harris of the House

6 An Act relating to the Oklahoma Discovery Code; 7 amending 12 O.S. 2021, Section 3226, which relates to 8 general provisions governing discovery; requiring 9 production of commercial litigation funding agreement 10 upon request; prohibiting admissibility of certain 11 information as evidence; requiring certain 12 certification with production of agreement; providing exception; defining terms; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.

13 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

14 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2021, Section 3226, is 15 amended to read as follows:

16 Section 3226. A. DISCOVERY METHODS; INITIAL DISCLOSURES.

17 1. DISCOVERY METHODS. Parties may obtain discovery regarding 18 any matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense by one 19 or more of the following methods: Depositions upon oral examination 20 or written questions; written interrogatories; production of 21 documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other 22 property, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental 23 examinations; requests for admission; authorizations for release of 24 records; and otherwise by court order upon showing of good cause.

1 Except as provided in this section or unless the court orders
2 otherwise under this section, the frequency of use of these methods 3 is not limited.

4 2. INITIAL DISCLOSURES.

5 a. Except in categories of proceedings specified in 6 subparagraph b of this paragraph, or to the extent 7 otherwise stipulated or directed by order, a party, 8 without awaiting a discovery request, shall provide to 9 other parties a computation of any category of damages 10 claimed by the disclosing party, making available for 11 inspection and copying the documents or other 12 evidentiary material, not privileged or protected from 13 disclosure, on which such computation is based, 14 including materials bearing on the nature and extent 15 of injuries suffered. Subject to subsection B of this 16 section, in any action in which physical or mental 17 injury is claimed, the party making the claim shall 18 provide to the other parties a release or 19 authorization allowing the parties to obtain relevant 20 medical records and bills, and, when relevant, a 21 release or authorization for employment and scholastic 22 records.

1           b.    The following categories of proceedings are exempt 2                from initial disclosure under subparagraph a of this 3                paragraph:

- 4                (1)   an action for review of an administrative record, 5                (2)   a petition for habeas corpus or other proceeding 6                to challenge a criminal conviction or sentence, 7                (3)   an action brought without counsel by a person in 8                custody of the United States, a state, or a state 9                subdivision,
10              (4)   an action to enforce or quash an administrative 11              summons or subpoena,
12              (5)   an action by the United States to recover benefit 13              payments,
14              (6)   an action by the United States to collect on a 15              student loan guaranteed by the United States, 16              (7)   a proceeding ancillary to proceedings in other 17              courts, and 18              (8)   an action to enforce an arbitration award.

19           c.   Disclosures required under this paragraph shall be 20                made at or within sixty (60) days after service unless 21                a different time is set by stipulation or court order, 22                or unless a party objects that initial disclosures are 23                not appropriate in the circumstances of the action and 24                states the objection in a motion filed with the court.

1 In ruling on the objection, the court shall determine 2 what disclosures, if any, are to be made and set the 3 time for disclosure. A party shall make its initial 4 disclosures based on the information then readily 5 available to it and is not excused from making its 6 disclosures because it has not fully completed its 7 investigation of the case or because it challenges the 8 sufficiency of another party's disclosures or because 9 another party has not made its disclosures.

10 B. DISCOVERY SCOPE AND LIMITS. Unless otherwise limited by 11 order of the court in accordance with the Oklahoma Discovery Code, 12 the scope of discovery is as follows:

13 1. IN GENERAL.

14 a. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not 15 privileged, which is relevant to any party's claim or 16 defense, reasonably calculated to lead to the 17 discovery of admissible evidence and proportional to 18 the needs of the case, considering the importance of 19 the issues at stake in the action, the amount in 20 controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant 21 information, the parties' resources, the importance of 22 the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the 23 burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs 24 its likely benefit. Information within this scope of 1 discovery need not be admissible in evidence to be 2 discoverable.

3 b. A party shall produce upon request pursuant to Section 4 3234 of this title, any insurance agreement under 5 which any person carrying on an insurance business may 6 be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which 7 may be entered in the action or to indemnify or 8 reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment.
9 Information concerning the insurance agreement is not 10 by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at 11 trial. For purposes of this section, an application 12 for insurance shall not be treated as a part of an 13 insurance agreement.

14 c. A party shall produce upon request, pursuant to 15 Section 3234 of this title, any commercial litigation
16 funding agreement as defined in Section 2 of this act.
17 Information related to the commercial litigation
18 funding agreement is not by reason of disclosure 19 admissible as evidence at trial. Production of a 20 commercial litigation funding agreement shall include 21 a certification by sworn affidavit by the producing 22 party as to whether any funds encumbered by the terms
23 of the agreement have been or will be sourced from a
24 foreign state or agency or instrumentality of a

1 foreign state as defined in 28 U.S.C., Section 1603,
2 as amended. Certification that discloses that a
3 foreign state or agency or instrumentality of a
4 foreign state is such a source shall include the 5 identity of the foreign state, agency, or 6 instrumentality that is the source of the funds. Such 7 certification shall be supplemented or corrected by 8 the producing party within thirty (30) days in the 9 event the certification becomes incomplete or 10 inaccurate in a material respect. A consumer
11 litigation funding agreement as defined in Section 3-12 801 of Title 14A of the Oklahoma Statutes shall be 13 exempt from the provisions of this subparagraph.

14 d. If a commercial litigation funding agreement as 15 defined in Section 2 of this act, has been requested, 16 a party shall also produce, upon request pursuant to 17 Sections 3234 and 3236 of this title, a certification 18 by sworn affidavit by the producing party that 19 identifies whether the party is an entity controlled 20 by a foreign adversary. The certification shall also 21 include an admission or denial as to whether the party
22 is under the control or direction of an entity 23 controlled by a foreign adversary and whether the 24 party will allow access to any documents or information arising in the litigation not generally available to the public to an entity controlled by a foreign adversary. In the event that the producing party admits that an entity controlled by a foreign adversary may access any documents or information arising in the litigation not generally available to the public, the party shall specify the persons who will have access to such documents or information. Further, if the party receives funding pursuant to a commercial litigation funding agreement as defined in Section 2 of this act, the certification shall include a statement that the funding was not sourced from an entity controlled by a foreign adversary.

2. LIMITATIONS ON FREQUENCY AND EXTENT.

- a. By order, the court may alter the limits on the length of depositions under Section 3230 of this title, on the number of interrogatories under Section 3233 of this title, on the number of requests to produce under Section 3234 of this title, or on the number of requests for admission under Section 3236 of this title.
- b. A party is not required to provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the party identifies as not reasonably accessible

1 because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel 2 discovery or for a protective order, the party from 3 whom discovery is sought must show that the 4 information is not reasonably accessible because of 5 undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the 6 court may order discovery from such sources if the 7 requesting party shows good cause, considering the 8 limitations of subparagraph c of this paragraph. The 9 court may specify conditions for the discovery.

10 c. On motion or on its own, the court shall limit the 11 frequency or extent of discovery otherwise allowed if 12 it determines that:

13 (1) the discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative 14 or duplicative, or can be obtained from some 15 other source that is more convenient, less 16 burdensome, or less expensive,

17 (2) the party seeking discovery has had ample 18 opportunity to obtain the information by 19 discovery in the action, or

20 (3) the proposed discovery is outside the scope 21 permitted by subparagraph a of paragraph 1 of 22 this subsection.

23 d. If an officer, director or managing agent of a 24 corporation or a government official is served with

1 notice of a deposition or subpoena regarding a matter
2 about which he or she has no knowledge, he or she may 3 submit at a reasonable time prior to the date of the 4 deposition an affidavit to the noticing party so 5 stating and identifying a person within the 6 corporation or government entity who has knowledge of 7 the subject matter involved in the pending action.
8 Notwithstanding such affidavit, the noticing party may 9 proceed with the deposition, subject to the noticed 10 witness's right to seek a protective order.

11 3. TRIAL PREPARATION: MATERIALS.

12 a. Unless as provided by paragraph 4 of this subsection, 13 a party may not discover documents and tangible things 14 that are prepared in anticipation of litigation or for 15 trial by or for another party or its representative, 16 including the other party's attorney, consultant, 17 surety, indemnitor, insurer or agent. Subject to 18 paragraph 4 of this subsection, such materials may be 19 discovered if:

- 20 (1) they are otherwise discoverable under paragraph 1 21 of this subsection, and 22 (2) the party shows that it has substantial need for 23 the materials to prepare its case and cannot,
24

1                   without undue hardship, obtain their substantial 2                   equivalent by other means.

3           b.    If the court orders discovery of such materials, the 4                court shall protect against disclosure of the mental 5                impressions, conclusions, opinions or legal theories 6                of a party's attorney or other representative 7                concerning the litigation.

8           c.    A party or other person may, upon request and without 9                the required showing, obtain the person's own previous 10               statement about the action or its subject matter.  If 11               the request is refused, the person may move for a 12               court order, and the provisions of paragraph 4 of 13               subsection A of Section 3237 of this title apply to 14               the award of expenses.  A previous statement is 15               either:

16               (1)   a written statement that the person has signed or 17                      otherwise adopted or approved, or

18               (2)   a contemporaneous stenographic, mechanical, 19                      electrical, or other recording, or a 20                      transcription thereof, which recites 21                      substantially verbatim the person's oral 22                      statement.

23           4.    TRIAL PREPARATION:  EXPERTS.
24

1           a.   Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, 2               otherwise discoverable under the provisions of 3               paragraph 1 of this subsection and acquired or 4               developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, 5               may be obtained only as follows:

6               (1)   a party may, through interrogatories, require any 7                      other party to identify each person whom that 8                      other party expects to call as an expert witness 9                      at trial and give the address at which that 10                     expert witness may be located,

11              (2)   after disclosure of the names and addresses of 12                      the expert witnesses, the other party expects to 13                      call as witnesses, the party, who has requested 14                      disclosure, may depose any such expert witnesses 15                      subject to scope of this section. Prior to 16                      taking the deposition the party must give notice 17                      as required in subsections A and C of Section 18                      3230 of this title, and 19              (3)   in addition to taking the depositions of expert 20                      witnesses the party may, through interrogatories, 21                      require the party who expects to call the expert 22                      witnesses to state the subject matter on which 23                      each expert witness is expected to testify; the 24                      substance of the facts and opinions to which the

1 expert is expected to testify and a summary of 2 the grounds for each opinion; the qualifications
3 of each expert witness, including a list of all 4 publications authored by the expert witness 5 within the preceding ten (10) years; the 6 compensation to be paid to the expert witness for 7 the testimony and preparation for the testimony; 8 and a listing of any other cases in which the 9 expert witness has testified as an expert at 10 trial or by deposition within the preceding four 11 (4) years. An interrogatory seeking the 12 information specified above shall be treated as a 13 single interrogatory for purposes of the 14 limitation on the number of interrogatories in 15 Section 3233 of this title.

- 16 b. The protection provided by paragraph 3 of this 17 subsection extends to communications between the 18 party's attorney and any expert witness retained or 19 specially employed to provide expert testimony in the 20 case or whose duties as the party's employee regularly 21 involve giving expert testimony, except to the extent 22 that the communications:
- 23 (1) relate to compensation for the expert's study or 24 testimony,

- 1 (2) identify facts or data that the party's attorney 2 provided and that the expert considered in 3 forming the opinions to be expressed, or 4 (3) identify assumptions that the party's attorney 5 provided and that the expert relied upon in 6 forming the opinions to be expressed.

7 c. A party may not, by interrogatories or deposition, 8 discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who 9 has been retained or specially employed by another 10 party in anticipation of litigation or to prepare for 11 trial and who is not expected to be called as a 12 witness at trial, except as provided in Section 3235
13 of this title or upon a showing of exceptional 14 circumstances under which it is impracticable for the 15 party to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject 16 by other means.

17 d. Unless manifest injustice would result:

- 18 (1) the court shall require that the party seeking 19 discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for 20 time spent in responding to discovery under 21 division (2) of subparagraph a of this paragraph 22 and subparagraph c of this paragraph, and
23 (2) the court shall require that the party seeking 24 discovery with respect to discovery obtained

1 under subparagraph c of this paragraph, pay the 2 other party a fair portion of the fees and 3 expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party
4 in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

5 5. CLAIMS OF PRIVILEGE OR PROTECTION OF TRIAL PREPARATION
6 MATERIALS.

- 7 a. When a party withholds information otherwise 8 discoverable under the Oklahoma Discovery Code by 9 claiming that it is privileged or subject to 10 protection as trial preparation material, the party 11 shall make the claim expressly and shall describe the 12 nature of the documents, communications, or things not 13 produced or disclosed in a manner that, without 14 revealing information itself privileged or protected, 15 will enable other parties to assess the applicability 16 of the privilege or protection.
- 17 b. If information produced in discovery is subject to a 18 claim of privilege or of protection as trial 19 preparation material, the party making the claim may 20 notify any party that received the information of the 21 claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a 22 party shall promptly return, sequester, or destroy the 23 specified information and any copies the party has; 24 shall not use or disclose the information until the

1 claim is resolved; shall take reasonable steps to 2 retrieve the information if the party has disclosed it 3 before being notified; and may promptly present the 4 information to the court under seal for a 5 determination of the claim. The producing party shall 6 preserve the information until the claim is resolved.
7 This mechanism is procedural only and does not alter 8 the standards governing whether the information is 9 privileged or subject to protection as trial 10 preparation material or whether such privilege or 11 protection has been waived.

12 C. PROTECTIVE ORDERS.

13 1. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery 14 is sought, accompanied by a certification that the movant has in 15 good faith conferred or attempted to confer, either in person or by 16 telephone, with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the 17 dispute without court action, and for good cause shown, the court in 18 which the action is pending or on matters relating to a deposition, 19 the district court in the county where the deposition is to be taken 20 may enter any order which justice requires to protect a party or 21 person from annoyance, harassment, embarrassment, oppression or 22 undue delay, burden or expense, including one or more of the 23 following:

24 a. that the discovery not be had,

- b. that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time, place or the allocation of expenses,
- c. that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery,
- d. that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the disclosure or discovery be limited to certain matters,
- e. that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court,
- f. that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the court,
- g. that a trade secret or other confidential research, development or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way, and
- h. that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.

2. If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of paragraph 4 of subsection A of Section 3237 of this title apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the

1 motion. Any protective order of the court which has the effect of 2 removing any material obtained by discovery from the public record 3 shall contain the following:

- 4 a. a statement that the court has determined it is 5 necessary in the interests of justice to remove the 6 material from the public record,
- 7 b. specific identification of the material which is to be 8 removed or withdrawn from the public record, or which 9 is to be filed but not placed in the public record, 10 and
- 11 c. a requirement that any party obtaining a protective 12 order place the protected material in a sealed manila
13 envelope clearly marked with the caption and case 14 number and is clearly marked with the word 15 "CONFIDENTIAL", and stating the date the order was 16 entered and the name of the judge entering the order.
17 This requirement may also be satisfied by requiring 18 the party to file the documents pursuant to the 19 procedure for electronically filing sealed or 20 confidential documents approved for electronic filing 21 in the courts of this state.

22 3. No protective order entered after the filing and 23 microfilming of documents of any kind shall be construed to require 24 the microfilm record of such filing to be amended in any fashion.

1        4. The party or counsel which has received the protective order 2 shall be responsible for promptly presenting the order to 3 appropriate court clerk personnel for appropriate action.

4        5. All documents produced or testimony given under a protective 5 order shall be retained in the office of counsel until required by 6 the court to be filed in the case.

7        6. Counsel for the respective parties shall be responsible for 8 informing witnesses, as necessary, of the contents of the protective 9 order.

10       7. When a case is filed in which a party intends to seek a 11 protective order removing material from the public record, the 12 plaintiff(s) and defendant(s) shall be initially designated on the 13 petition under pseudonym such as "John or Jane Doe", or "Roe", and 14 the petition shall clearly indicate that the party designations are 15 fictitious. The party seeking confidentiality or other order 16 removing the case, in whole or in part, from the public record, 17 shall immediately present application to the court, seeking 18 instructions for the conduct of the case, including confidentiality 19 of the records.

20       D. SEQUENCE AND TIMING OF DISCOVERY. Unless the parties 21 stipulate or the court orders otherwise for the convenience of 22 parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, methods of 23 discovery may be used in any sequence. The fact that a party is 24

1 conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not 2 operate to delay discovery by any other party.

3 E. SUPPLEMENTATION OF RESPONSES. A party who has responded to 4 a request for discovery with a response that was complete when it 5 was made is under no duty to supplement the response to include 6 information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

7 1. A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement the 8 response with respect to any question directly addressed to:

9 a. the identity and location of persons having knowledge 10 of discoverable matters, and 11 b. the identity of each person expected to be called as 12 an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on 13 which the person is expected to testify, and the 14 substance of the testimony of the person;

15 2. A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response 16 to an interrogatory, request for production, or request for 17 admission if the party obtains information upon the basis of which:

18 a. (1) the party knows that the response was incorrect 19 in some material respect when made, or 20 (2) the party knows that the response, which was 21 correct when made, is no longer true in some 22 material respect, and 23

24

1           b.    the additional or corrective information has not 2                otherwise been made known to the other parties during 3                the discovery process or in writing; and 4           3.   A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of 5   the court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial 6   through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.

7           F.   DISCOVERY CONFERENCE.   At any time after commencement of an 8   action, the court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear 9   for a conference on the subject of discovery.   The court shall do so 10   upon motion by the attorney for any party if the motion includes:

11          1.   A statement of the issues as they then appear;

12          2.   A proposed plan and schedule of discovery;

13          3.   Any limitations proposed to be placed on discovery;

14          4.   Any other proposed orders with respect to discovery; and 15          5.   A statement showing that the attorney making the motion has 16   made a reasonable effort to reach agreement with opposing attorneys 17   on the matters set forth in the motion.

18          Each party and his attorney are under a duty to participate in 19   good faith in the framing of a discovery plan if a plan is proposed 20   by the attorney for any party.   Notice of the motion shall be served 21   on all parties.   Objections or additions to matters set forth in the 22   motion shall be served not later than ten (10) days after service of 23   the motion.
24

1       Following the discovery conference, the court shall enter an 2 order tentatively identifying the issues for discovery purposes, 3 establishing a plan and schedule for discovery, setting limitations 4 on discovery, if any; and determining such other matters, including 5 the allocation of expenses, as are necessary for the proper 6 management of discovery in the action. In preparing the plan for 7 discovery the court shall protect the parties from excessive or 8 abusive use of discovery. An order shall be altered or amended 9 whenever justice so requires.

10       Subject to the right of a party who properly moves for a 11 discovery conference to prompt convening of the conference, the 12 court may combine the discovery conference with a pretrial 13 conference.

14       G.   SIGNING OF DISCOVERY REQUESTS, RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS.

15 Every request for discovery, response or objection thereto made by a 16 party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one of 17 the party's attorneys of record in the party's individual name whose 18 address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an 19 attorney shall sign the request, response or objection and state the 20 party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes 21 a certification that the party has read the request, response or
