1 WHEREAS, from 1999 to 2001, Pope Leo XIV served on the Board of 2 Directors of Cascia Hall Preparatory School in Tulsa, Oklahoma,
3 contributing to the spiritual and academic life of a respected 4 institution in our state and leaving a legacy of guidance and 5 integrity that still resonates with those who served alongside him; 6 and

7 WHEREAS, Pope Leo XIV's election is not only a historic 8 milestone for the Catholic Church, but a moment of great pride for 9 all Americans, regardless of faith – a testament to the enduring 10 influence of American values, religious freedom, and leadership on 11 the global stage; and

12 WHEREAS, throughout his ministry, Pope Leo XIV has demonstrated 13 a consistent commitment to the dignity of every human life, the 14 importance of strong families, and a call to serve the least among 15 us, values that resonate across faith traditions and reflect 16 timeless truths shared by millions of Americans; and

17 WHEREAS, in a world marked by moral drift and cultural 18 confusion, his election signals a voice of clarity, courage, and 19 conviction in leadership, rooted not in political fashion, but in 20 eternal principles.
