In the hearing on a petition under this act, the court shall consider any evidence that the respondent believed in good faith that the respondent's conduct was necessary to avoid imminent harm to the child or respondent and any other evidence that may be relevant to whether the respondent may be permitted to remove or retain the child.

SECTION 8. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 571-108 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. If a petition is filed under this act, the court may enter an order that shall include:

3. A detailed description of each party's custody and visitation rights and residential arrangements for the child;
4. A provision stating that a violation of the order may subject the party in violation to civil and criminal penalties; and
5. Identification of the child's country of habitual residence at the time of the issuance of the order.

B. If, at a hearing on a petition under this act or on the court's own motion, the court after reviewing the evidence finds a credible risk of abduction of the child, the court shall enter an abduction prevention order. The order shall include the provisions required by subsection A of this section and measures and conditions, including provisions in subsections C, D, and E of this section, that are reasonably calculated to prevent abduction of the child, giving due consideration to the custody and visitation rights of the parties. The court shall consider the age of the child, the potential harm to the child from an abduction, the legal and practical difficulties of returning the child to the jurisdiction if abducted, and the reasons for the potential abduction, including evidence of domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect.

C. An abduction prevention order may include one or more of the following:

1. An imposition of travel restrictions that require that a party traveling with the child outside a designated geographical area provide the other party with the following:
 - a. the travel itinerary of the child,
 - b. a list of physical addresses and telephone numbers at which the child can be reached at specified times, and
 - c. copies of all travel documents;

- c. removing the child from school or a child-care or similar facility, or
- d. approaching the child at any location other than a site designated for supervised visitation;

3. A requirement that a party register the order in another state as a prerequisite to allowing the child to travel to that state;

4. With regard to the child's passport:

- a. a direction that the petitioner place the child's name in the United States Department of State's Child Passport Issuance Alert Program,
- b. a requirement that the respondent surrender to the court or the petitioner's attorney any United States or foreign passport issued in the child's name, including a passport issued in the name of both the parent and the child, and
- c. a prohibition upon the respondent from applying on behalf of the child for a new or replacement passport or visa;

5. As a prerequisite to exercising custody or visitation, a requirement that the respondent provide:

- b. to the court:

- (1) proof that the respondent has provided the information in subparagraph a of paragraph 5 of subsection C of this section, and
 - (2) an acknowledgment in a record from the relevant foreign consulate or embassy that no passport application has been made, or passport issued, on behalf of the child,
- c. to the petitioner, proof of registration with the United States Embassy or other United States diplomatic presence in the destination country and with the Central Authority for the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, if that Convention is in effect between the United States and the destination country, unless one of the parties objects, and
- d. a written waiver under the Privacy Act, Section 552a of Title 5 of the United States Code, as amended, with respect to any document, application, or other information pertaining to the child authorizing its disclosure to the court and the petitioner; and

6. Upon the petitioner's request, a requirement that the respondent obtain an order from the relevant foreign country containing terms identical to the child custody determination issued in the United States.

D. In an abduction prevention order, the court may impose conditions on the exercise of custody or visitation that:

1. Limit visitation or require that visitation with the child by the respondent be supervised until the court finds that supervision is no longer necessary and order the respondent to pay the costs of supervision;

2. Require the respondent to post a bond or provide other security in an amount sufficient to serve as a financial deterrent to abduction, the proceeds of which may be used to pay for the reasonable expenses of recovery of the child, including reasonable attorney fees and costs if there is an abduction; and

3. Require the respondent to obtain education on the potentially harmful effects to the child from abduction.

E. To prevent imminent abduction of a child, a court may:

1. Issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child under Section 9 of this act or the laws of this state other than this act;

2. Direct the use of law enforcement to take any action reasonably necessary to locate the child, obtain return of the child, or enforce a custody determination under this act or the laws of this state other than this act; or

3. Grant any other relief allowed under the laws of this state other than this act.

F. The remedies provided in this act are cumulative and do not affect the availability of other remedies to prevent abduction.

SECTION 9. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 571-109 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. If a petition under this act contains allegations, and the court finds that there is a credible risk that the child is imminently likely to be wrongfully removed, the court may issue an ex parte warrant to take physical custody of the child.

B. The respondent on a petition under subsection A of this section shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard at the earliest possible time after the ex parte warrant is executed, but not later than the next judicial day unless a hearing on that date is impossible. In such event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible.

C. An ex parte warrant under subsection A of this section to take physical custody of a child shall:

1. Recite the facts upon which a determination of a credible risk of imminent wrongful removal of the child is based;

2. Direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately;

3. State the date and time for the hearing on the petition; and

4. Provide for the safe interim placement of the child pending further order of the court.

D. If feasible, before issuing a warrant and before determining the placement of the child after the warrant is executed, the court may order a search of the relevant databases of the National Crime Information Center system and similar state databases to determine if either the petitioner or respondent has a history of domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect.

E. The petition and warrant shall be served on the respondent when or immediately after the child is taken into physical custody.

F. A warrant to take physical custody of a child, issued by this state or another state, is enforceable throughout this state. If the court finds that a less intrusive remedy will not be effective, it may authorize law enforcement officers to enter private property to take physical custody of the child. If required by exigent circumstances, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

G. If the court finds, after a hearing, that a petitioner sought an ex parte warrant under subsection A of this section for the purpose of harassment or in bad faith, the court may award the respondent reasonable attorney fees, costs, and expenses.

H. This act does not affect the availability of relief allowed under the laws of this state other than this act.

SECTION 10. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 571-110 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

An abduction prevention order remains in effect until the earliest of the:

1. Time stated in the order;
2. Emancipation of the child;
3. Child attaining eighteen (18) years of age; or

4. Time the order is modified, revoked, vacated, or superseded by a court with jurisdiction under Sections 551-201, 551-202, and 551-203 of Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes or other applicable laws of this state.

SECTION 11. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 571-111 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

In applying and construing the Uniform Child Abduction Prevention Act, consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

SECTION 12. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 571-112 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

This act modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, Section 7001, et seq. of Title 15 of the United States Code, but does not modify, limit, or supersede Section 101(c) of the act, 15 U.S.C., Section 7001(c), of that act or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C., Section 7003(b).
