3. Advise the prospective party that:
 - a. after signing an agreement if a party initiates a proceeding or seeks tribunal intervention in a pending proceeding related to the collaborative matter, the collaborative law process terminates,

C. If a collaborative lawyer reasonably believes that the party the lawyer represents or the prospective party who consults the lawyer has a history of a coercive or violent relationship with another party or prospective party, the lawyer may not begin or continue a collaborative law process unless:

1. The party or the prospective party requests beginning or continuing a process; and

2. The collaborative lawyer reasonably believes that the safety of the party or prospective party can be protected adequately during a process.

SECTION 16. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3316 of Title 12, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

B. In a proceeding, the following privileges apply:

1. A party may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, a collaborative law communication; and

2. A nonparty participant may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, a collaborative law communication of the nonparty participant.

C. Evidence or information that is otherwise admissible or subject to discovery does not become inadmissible or protected from discovery solely because of its disclosure or use in a collaborative law process.

WAIVER AND PRECLUSION OF PRIVILEGE.

B. A person that makes a disclosure or representation about a collaborative law communication which prejudices another person in a proceeding may not assert a privilege under Section 17 of this act, but this preclusion applies only to the extent necessary for the person prejudiced to respond to the disclosure or representation.

LIMITS OF PRIVILEGE.

2. Sought or offered to prove or disprove abuse, neglect, abandonment, or exploitation of a child or adult, unless the Department of Human Services is a party to or otherwise participates in the process.

C. There is no privilege under Section 17 of this act if a tribunal finds, after a hearing in camera, that the party seeking discovery or the proponent of the evidence has shown the evidence is not otherwise available, the need for the evidence substantially outweighs the interest in protecting confidentiality, and the collaborative law communication is sought or offered in:

1. A court proceeding involving a felony or misdemeanor; or

2. A proceeding seeking rescission or reformation of a contract arising out of the collaborative law process or in which a defense to avoid liability on the contract is asserted.

D. If a collaborative law communication is subject to an exception under subsection B or C of this section, only the part of the communication necessary for the application of the exception may be disclosed or admitted.

E. Disclosure or admission of evidence excepted from the privilege under subsection B or C of this section does not make the evidence or any other collaborative law communication discoverable or admissible for any other purpose.

F. The privileges under Section 17 of this act do not apply if the parties agree in advance in a signed record, or if a record of a proceeding reflects agreement by the parties, that all or part of a collaborative law process is not privileged. This subsection does not apply to a collaborative law communication made by a person that did not receive actual notice of the agreement before the communication was made.
