(Date)

I move to amend Senate Bill No. 1078, as follows:

1. On page 1, line 14, before the word “Notwithstanding”, inserting the letter “A.”
2. On page 2, line 13 1/2, adding new subsections to say:

“B. If, after the time of sale, the Environmental Protection Agency cancels the registration for the pesticide based on its findings that the registrant intentionally withheld from or misrepresented human health or safety information that was required to be submitted under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, subsection A of this section shall not apply.

C. This act shall not apply to a manufacturer or seller of an American-manufactured pesticide that is an adversarial nation to the United States of America pursuant to 15 C.F.R, Part 791.4.

D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a civil action as otherwise provided by law.”
