23 B. This act shall not apply to:
24

- 1        1. A judicial interview conducted in a proceeding under the
- 2 Oklahoma Children's Code or the Oklahoma Juvenile Code;
- 3        2. Testimony by a child; or
- 4        3. An interview conducted by a person other than a judicial
- 5 officer.

6        SECTION 4.        NEW LAW        A new section of law to be codified
7 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3404 of Title 12, unless there
8 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

9        A. Unless prohibited by other law, the child, child's attorney,
10 guardian ad litem, or a party may request a judicial interview. The 11 decision to conduct a judicial interview is within the judicial 12 officer's discretion and may be at the judicial officer's own
13 initiative.

14        B. A judicial officer may conduct a judicial interview if the 15 judicial officer determines the judicial interview is in the child's 16 best interest and the requirements of other law are met.

17        C. Except as provided by other law, in deciding whether a 18 judicial interview is in the child's best interest, the judicial 19 officer shall consider the child's expressed desire to communicate
20 or not communicate with the judicial officer and, to the extent
21 applicable and readily ascertainable:

- 22        1. The likelihood that the interview will assist the judicial
- 23 officer in adjudicating the covered proceeding;

24

1           2. The child's age, maturity, and capacity to formulate and
2 communicate views to the judicial officer;

3           3. The likely benefit to the child from the interview;

4           4. The potential harm to the child from the interview,
5 including embarrassment, harassment, retaliation, and breach of a
6 relationship, and the judicial officer's ability to mitigate harm
7 while still eliciting the child's views;

8           5. The availability and suitability of other processes to 9 elicit the child's views;

10          6. The likelihood that conducting the interview may facilitate 11 recognition or enforcement in another state or foreign court of the 12 decision in the covered proceeding; and

13          7. Any other relevant factor.

14          D. A judicial officer who conducts a judicial interview shall 15 have training in interviewing a child in accordance with judicial 16 standards established under other law of this state.

17          SECTION 5.        NEW LAW        A new section of law to be codified
18 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3405 of Title 12, unless there
19 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

20          A. The judicial officer shall permit a party, the child's 21 attorney, and the guardian ad litem to propose questions in a record
22 for the judicial interview. The judicial officer shall determine
23 the questions asked of the child.

1 B. The judicial officer shall require an interview record to be
2 made.

3 C. The judicial officer shall permit the child's attorney and
4 guardian ad litem to attend the interview in person.

5
6 D. The judicial officer may not permit a party or the party's
7 attorney to attend the interview.

8 E. If all parties agree, the parties may stipulate on the 9 record that they waive access to the interview record. A
10 stipulation is not valid unless approved by a judicial officer. The 11 judicial officer may not approve a stipulation unless each party
12 stipulates that the party waives any right to access the interview
13 record, to be informed of communication by the child during the 14 interview, and to respond to the child's communication. Unless 15 otherwise stated in the stipulation, a stipulation under this
16 section precludes access to the interview record by the parties in a
17 future covered proceeding, including an appeal.

18 F. Before starting the interview, the judicial officer shall 19 explain to the child in an age-appropriate manner information about 20 the interview, including:

21 1. That the child is not required to answer the judicial 22 officer's questions;

23 2. That the child's views will be considered but the judicial 24 officer is the decisionmaker;

1 3. That an interview record will be made;

2 4. Whether any individual will be observing or listening to
3 the interview in real time;

4 5. Whether the interview record will be provided to the 5 parties; and

6 6. That the judicial officer under other law of this state may 7 be required in some circumstances to share with another person the 8 child's communication.

9 SECTION 6. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
10 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3406 of Title 12, unless there
11 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

12 A. Unless otherwise prohibited by a stipulation approved
13 pursuant to subsection E of Section 5 of this act and except as 14 provided under subsection B of this section, on request of a party
15 and after payment of required costs, the judicial officer shall 16 grant access to the interview record if a party appeals the final
17 decision in the covered proceeding.

18 B. Unless otherwise prohibited by a stipulation approved
19 pursuant to subsection E of Section 5 of this act, if the child
20 makes a factual allegation in the judicial interview, other than 21 communication of the child's views, that is or may be contested and 22 is potentially dispositive in the covered proceeding, the judicial 23 officer shall disclose the allegation to the parties and provide 24

1 them an opportunity to submit evidence and legal argument in
2 response.

3 C. The right of the child, the child's attorney, and the 4 guardian ad litem to access the interview record and participate in 5 the covered proceeding is governed by other law.

6 D. The judicial officer shall determine appropriate
7 restrictions on the disclosure of the contents of the interview and 8 the interview record to nonparties during the covered proceeding and 9 after its conclusion.

10 E. On a finding required under Section 24A.29 of Title 51 of 11 the Oklahoma Statutes, the court shall seal the interview record
12 from public access.

13 F. The decision whether to permit the child to provide
14 testimony in a covered proceeding is governed by other law.

15 SECTION 7. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
16 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3407 of Title 12, unless there
17 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

18 In applying and construing this uniform act, a court shall 19 consider the promotion of uniformity of the law among states that 20 enact it.

21 SECTION 8. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
22 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3408 of Title 12, unless there
23 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

24

1 This act shall apply to a judicial interview requested or
2 initiated on or after the effective date of this act.

3 SECTION 9. This act shall become effective November 1, 2026.
