10 by a financial institution; providing for means of 11 transmittal of statement; requiring certain 12 information in statement; permitting Equal Credit 13 Opportunity Act adverse action statement to satisfy 14 requirement; prohibiting a financial institution from 15 discriminating in the provision of financial services 16 to a person; excluding certain conduct by a financial 17 institution if made in good faith and not motivated 18 by desire to discriminate in the provision of covered 19 financial services; finding violation of section to 20 be unlawful under Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act; 21 creating civil cause of action for violating section; 22 providing for remedies of civil action; creating 23 relief for financial institutions for bad faith 24 claims; providing for construction of section; providing for noncodification; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law not to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes reads as follows:

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Fair Banking Act".

1 SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified 2 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1530 of Title 6, unless there is 3 created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

4 A. As used in this section:

5 1. "Adverse action" means a decision by a financial institution 6 to directly or indirectly decline to provide full and equal 7 enjoyment in the provision of covered financial services and 8 includes refusing to provide, terminating, or restricting covered 9 financial services;

10 2. "Discriminate in the provision of covered financial 11 services" means taking an adverse action against a customer on the 12 basis of one of the following criteria:

13 a. any person's exercise of religion that is protected
14 by the First Amendment to the United States
15 Constitution, Section 2 of Article I of the Oklahoma
16 Constitution, or federal or state law, including all 17 aspects of religious observance and practice, as well 18 as belief and affiliation,

19 b. any person's speech, expression, opinions, expressive 20 activity, or association that is protected by the 21 First Amendment to the United States Constitution, 22 Section 22 of Article II of the Oklahoma 23 Constitution, or federal or state law, including the 24 lawful preservation of privacy regarding those

1 activities, such as declining to disclose 2 contributions or political activity beyond what is 3 required by applicable state and federal law.
4 Provided that this subparagraph does not include 5 speech that the United States Supreme Court has 6 expressly held is unprotected, such as obscenity, 7 fraud, incitement, true threats, fighting words, or 8 defamation,

9 c. any person's participation in lawful economic 10 activity,

11 d. animus towards a person based on the factors in 12 subparagraphs a through c of this paragraph, and 13 e. a desire to, directly or indirectly, obtain a gain 14 from or avoid a loss imposed on the covered financial 15 institution by any person for the purpose of 16 encouraging the covered financial institution to take 17 an adverse action based on any of the factors in 18 subparagraphs a through c of this paragraph;

19 3. "Financial institution" means:

20 a. a bank that has total assets over One Hundred Billion 21 Dollars ($100,000,000,000.00), or

22 b. a payment processor, credit card company, credit card 23 network, payment network, payment service provider, 24 or payment gateway that has processed more than One

1 Hundred Billion Dollars ($100,000,000,000.00) in 2 transactions in the last calendar year.

3 A financial institution includes any parent company, holding 4 company, affiliate, or subsidiary company, even if that company is 5 also a financial institution;

6 4. "Covered financial service" means:

7 a. depository accounts including, but not limited to,
8 checking accounts, savings accounts, or NOW accounts,

9 b. money transmission including, but not limited to,
10 checking, payment services, ACH, or credit card 11 networks, or

12 c. credit including, but not limited to, personal loans, 13 mortgages, business loans, or credit cards.

14 Covered financial service does not include the provision of 15 insurance or the underwriting of or an investment in a security as 16 defined by federal law; and 17 5. "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, 18 joint stock company, trust, corporation, nonprofit organization, or 19 other business or legal entity.

20 B. 1. If a financial institution takes an adverse action 21 against a person, that person may request a statement of specific 22 reasons within ninety (90) days after receiving notice of the 23 refusal to provide, restriction of, or termination of service. The 24 person may request the statement from a customer service

1 representative or designated account representative by phone, U.S.
2 mail, or electronic mail. Unless otherwise prohibited by federal 3 law, the financial institution shall transmit the statement of 4 specific reasons via U.S. Mail and electronic mail, if known to the 5 financial institution, within thirty (30) days of receiving the 6 person's request.

7 2. The statement shall be specific and include a description of 8 the principal reason or reasons for the adverse action. A statement 9 that the adverse action was based on the institution's internal 10 standards or policies or that the person failed to achieve a 11 qualifying score on the institution's credit scoring system are 12 insufficient. If any criteria listed in paragraph 2 of subsection A 13 of this section factored into the institution's decision to take an 14 adverse action, the criteria shall be described in the statement.

15 3. If the financial institution provides an adverse action 16 statement to the customer consistent with its obligations under the 17 Equal Credit Opportunity Act, 15 U.S.C., Section 1691 et. seq., and 18 implementing regulations, that statement shall be considered to 19 satisfy the requirements of this subsection, provided that if any 20 criteria listed in paragraph 2 of subsection A of this section 21 factored into the institution's decision to take an adverse action, 22 the criteria shall be described in the statement, a supplement to 23 the statement, or a separate statement that is provided to the 24

1 customer contemporaneously with the Equal Credit Opportunity Act
2 adverse action statement.

3 C. A financial institution shall not:

4 1. Discriminate in the provision of financial services to a 5 person;

6 2. Agree, conspire, or coordinate, directly or indirectly, 7 including through any intermediary or third party, with another 8 person, or group of persons, to engage in activity to discriminate 9 in the provision of financial services to a person; or 10 3. Fail to provide, or provide false or intentionally 11 misleading, information in the report required in subsection B of 12 this section.

13 D. It shall not be a violation of this act for a financial 14 institution to take any of the following actions, provided that the 15 action was made in good faith and not motivated by animus or a 16 desire to discriminate in the provision of covered financial 17 services against a person:

18 1. A change in the terms of an account expressly agreed to by a 19 customer;

20 2. Any action or forbearance relating to an account taken in 21 connection with inactivity, default, or delinquency as to that 22 account;

1 3. A refusal to provide services because applicable federal or 2 Oklahoma law prohibits the covered financial institution from 3 providing the service requested;

4 4. A refusal to provide a service because the covered financial 5 institution does not offer the type of service requested; or 6 5. A decision based solely on any of the following valid 7 business factors, if made in an impartial manner and in good faith:

8 a. maximizing profitability or shareholder value, provided 9 this determination is not based on a desire to obtain a 10 benefit or avoid a harm imposed by another person 11 because the covered financial institution served a 12 customer,

13 b. complying with legitimate legal or regulatory 14 requirements, or

15 c. maintaining the safety and soundness of a covered 16 financial institution or its employees.

17 E. Any violation of this section shall be an unfair or 18 deceptive act or practice declared unlawful by Section 753 of Title 19 15 of the Oklahoma Statutes and, in addition to the rights and 20 remedies provided in this section, the Oklahoma Attorney General or 21 other competent official may pursue any other remedies provided for 22 under the Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act.

23 F. Any person harmed by a violation of this section may 24 initiate a civil action for any of the following:

1 1. Actual damages, or Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), 2 whichever is greater, for each violation. If the trier of fact 3 finds that the violation was willful, the tier of fact may increase 4 the damages to an amount of up to three (3) times the actual damages 5 sustained, or Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00), whichever is 6 greater. A court shall award a prevailing plaintiff reasonable 7 attorney fees and court costs;

8 2. Preventive relief, including an application for a permanent 9 or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order as is 10 necessary to enforce the requirements of this section; or 11 3. Reasonable attorney fees and court costs.

12 G. If a financial institution can show by clear and convincing 13 evidence that the plaintiff filed a civil action pursuant to 14 subsection F of this section in bad faith, the financial institution 15 shall be entitled to reasonable attorney fees and court costs from 16 the plaintiff.

17 H. This act shall be construed in favor of the broad protection 18 of the conduct, opinions, and beliefs protected by the First 19 Amendment to the United States Constitution, applicable federal 20 laws, the Oklahoma Constitution, and state law.

21 SECTION 3. This act shall become effective November 1, 2026.
