Research Analysis

The Senate Amendments to HB 1066 adds the crime of abuse against an intimate partner and the crime of abuse of a child to the list of crimes for which bail on appeal is not to be allowed after conviction.

Prepared By: Brad Wolgamott

Fiscal Analysis

HB1066 relates to the application process for defendants in certain cases to modify their plea. In its current form, there is no anticipated material impact to state budget or appropriations.

The SAHB does not change the fiscal impact of the measure as described above.
