Research Analysis

The conference committee report for HB 1727 adopts a conference committee substitute.

The conference committee substitute for HB 1727 allows the children of public school teachers to qualify for an OHLAP scholarship under the following conditions:

- The household income of the student's parents must be less than 700% the federal poverty level; and
- The teacher must be a certified, full time teacher who has worked in a public school district for at least 10 years. This excludes superintendents, principals, and other administrators.

The measure also extends the application deadline for an OHLAP scholarship to December 31st of a student's senior year. The application deadline for homeschooled students is extended to the age of 17. This change is applicable to the 2025-2026 school year.
