Research Analysis

The committee substitute for HB 2922 modifies Oklahoma Administrative Code Section 235: 10-11-1 to add provisions related to funeral establishments. The measure adds that penalties for vendor payments may only be imposed after a formal court judgement and may only be imposed on funeral establishments and not the director in charge. These rules will only apply to active funeral establishments and must be in compliance with federal bankruptcy laws. All cash payments made in advance must meet consumer fund receipts requirements.
