Research Analysis

HB 3066, as introduced, authorizes the Health Care Workforce Training Commission to receive appropriations from the state legislature, accept and use federal funds and grants, and receive and accept public and private donations, grants, contributions, and gifts. The measure also creates the Rural Health Transformation Revolving Fund which will consist of funds received by the state as Rural Health Transformation Program Funds, pursuant to the One Big Beautiful Bill Act of 2025, and other applicable available monies. The Health Care Workforce Training Commission will promulgate rules as necessary to implement the Rural Health Transformation Program.
