Research Analysis

The proposed policy committee substitute to HB 3091 requires all elected county officials to hold a principal residence within their elected jurisdictions for at least 70 percent of their term. Officials who fail to comply can be removed from office.

Prepared By: Keana Swadley

Fiscal Analysis

The proposed policy committee substitute for HB 3091 creates new law providing certain requirements for elected county officials. The measure does not increase administrative workload or alter state revenue sources. Therefore, the measure is not anticipated to have a direct fiscal impact on the state budget or appropriations.
