Research Analysis

HB 3551, as introduced, removes non-U.S. citizens' ability to satisfy certain university enrollment and in-state tuition requirements by providing an application for U.S. citizenship or an affidavit saying the student will complete an application at their earliest opportunity. Instead, students must provide valid documentation of U.S. nationality or status as an alien lawfully present in the U.S. in order to enroll in an institution within the State System of Higher Education.
