Research Analysis

The amendment 2 to the Policy committee recommendation for HB 3581 provides that the commission of assault and battery in the course of a riot is to be a Class D2 felony punishable by a term of no more than 2 years imprisonment. Aggravated assault and battery in the course of a riot is to be a Class B1 felony punishable by a term of not more than 10 years imprisonment. The willful damage or vandalization of a governmental building during the course of a riot is to be a Class D3 felony punishable by not more than 2 years if the damage was less than $1,000. If the damage was greater than $1,000, the offense is a Class D1 felony punishable by not more than 4 years imprisonment. The wearing of a mask, hood, covering, or disguise for the purpose of concealing identity in the course of a riot is to be a Class D3 felony. The punishment for the obstruction of a public street or highway is to be a Class D3 felony. The measure modifies the list of instances in which the state or political subdivision is not liable for a loss or claim that results from a riot unless the loss or claim results from instances where the state or political subdivision was aware of the dangerous condition and failed to take action.
