Research Analysis

HB 3919 as introduced, establishes that county free fair boards must consist of either five members or nine members who are elected for a term of three years. The total number of county free fair board members are to be determined by the appropriate board of county commissioners. For five member boards, two members must be elected annually beginning in 2029, two members in 2030, and one member in 2031, and subsequently after. Beginning 2030, each county commissioner district must be represented by one board member with the remaining two board members from the county at large. For nine member boards, three members must be elected annually. Each county commissioner district must be represented by one board member.
