Research Analysis

HB 4143 increases from $300 to $3,000 the amount of damage necessary to require a written report of a collision. The measure provides that no report is required when all parties agree to exchange information and there is no injury, death and no damage to property other than vehicles. For accidents occurring on a public roadway, the amount of damage necessary is increased from $500 to $3,000 as well.
