Research Analysis

The proposed committee substitute for HB 4316 removes a date in statute that prohibited nonprofit rural water corporations formed after 1988 from organizing into a rural water district. Further, the measure provides clarifying language that the organization of solid waste management districts is prohibited.

Fiscal Analysis

The proposed committee substitute to HB 4316 removes a date-based statutory stipulation on any corporation who wishes to organize a district to provide rural water service as well as clarifies that this statutory section does not authorize the organization or reorganization of a solid waste management district. Upon review, this measure has no direct fiscal or revenue considerations for the state.
