Research Analysis

HB 4338, as introduced, modifies several definitions within the Oklahoma Brine Development Act.

The measure clarifies that a Brine owner includes someone who shares in the proceeds of the recoverable resources from the brine, and not just the brine itself;

The definition of Operator is modified to include operators of wells that produce brine which is saved or sold for the purpose of extracting recoverable resources;

Lastly, the measure makes clear distinctions between brine wells and oil and gas wells. Brine wells are drilled for the primary purpose of extracting brine.
