Research Analysis

HB 4409, as introduced, creates the Legislative Workforce Housing Committee to assist in carrying out the goals of the Oklahoma Housing Stability Program and to make policy improvements to the program, working jointly with the Oklahoma Housing Finance Agency. The measure provides the membership for this bicameral and bipartisan committee, with the rules and meeting schedule being established by the Committee chairs and vice-chairs. The Committee may seek input from a variety of stakeholders in the state and may also bring in out of state experts.
