Research Analysis

SB 497 requires the Forensic Review Board to provide notice to the district attorney of the county where the individual was found not guilty by reason of mental illness at least 45 days before meeting to determine eligibility for therapeutic visits, conditional release, or discharge.

Prepared By: Brad Wolgamott

Fiscal Analysis

The Engrossed version of SB497 sets forth a timeline for which the Forensic Review Board must provide certain notice to the district attorney. In its current form, this measure is not anticipated to have a material impact on state budget or appropriations.
