Bill Analysis

SB 1619 prohibits any municipality or county from entering into a partnership with a person, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust, or other legal entity that would prevent the municipality from making disclosure of the terms of any agreement with such entity that would make payment to or confer value upon such entity using an incentive, tax credit, direct or indirect payment, grant, or similar benefit. Such disclosure shall not include information of a proprietary nature.
