Bill Analysis

SB 1706 prohibits any foreign adversary or foreign principal from directly or indirectly renting or holding a controlling interest in a data center. The measure requires any such entity currently conducting such actions to divest themselves from the agreements within 180 days of the effective date of this measure. The Attorney General shall determine whether an entity is subject to the provisions of this measure. If an entity holds an interest or rents a data center, the Attorney General shall commence an action in district court within the jurisdiction of the real property.
