Bill Analysis

SB 2097 expands the definition of “child or juvenile in need of supervision” at it relates to the Oklahoma Juvenile Code to include any child under 12 years of age alleged to have committed an act that would constitute a felony offense or serious misdemeanor if committed by a child of sufficient age to be adjudicated a delinquent but who is not subject to delinquency jurisdiction solely due to the child’s age. The measure classifies provides that the state may initiate proceedings pursuant to the Inpatient Mental Health and Substance Abuse Treatment of Minors Act if they commit certain violent crimes.
