Bill Analysis

SB 891 expands “kratom product” as it relates to the Oklahoma Kratom Consumer Protection Act to include synthesized products. The measure also specifies that an independent laboratory shall not have a direct or indirect interest in the entity whose product is being tested as well as not have a direct or indirect interest in a processing or distribution facility. Such laboratories must also be accredited. The measure strikes language requiring kratom leaf extracts to be at a level that is equal to or exceeds twice that of any other alkaloid present. The measure strikes language requiring packaging for powdered kratom products not in capsule form to have a calibrated measuring device in the container. The measure requires a warning to be affixed to kratom products clarifying that these statements have not been evaluated by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

House Amendments

HA’s to SB 891 adds new language relating to independent laboratories, kratom leaf extracts, packaging powdered kratom products, and warning labels.
