Bill Analysis

SB 917 provides that any state employee charged with a felony shall forfeit all benefits of the office or employment. The measure requires the prosecutor charging employee to notify the employee's employer. If the member is found to be not guilty, retirement benefits shall be restored. The measure authorizes the boards of retirement systems to investigate and gather court documents and contact prosecutors to determine whether the charge qualifies under the provisions of this measure if the employee is charged in federal court or the notice of forfeiture is not forthcoming from the state prosecutor.
