Bill Analysis

SB 966 creates the Turnpike Legislative Oversight Board. The board shall oversee the functions, activities, policies, procedures, and expenditures performed by the Oklahoma Turnpike Authority. The President Pro Tempore of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall each respectively appoint 6 members to the board. The measure authorizes the board to temporarily suspend any non ex officio member of the board of directors or executive staff of the Oklahoma Turnpike Authority for 30 days to conduct an investigation. If the board determines that the suspended member should be terminated, it shall send the question to the Legislature with a 2/3's vote of all members. If 2/3's of both chambers vote to remove the member, the member shall be removed.
