Bill Analysis

SJR 36 refers to a vote of the people a constitutional amendment that provides a stepped increase of ad valorem tax exemptions to honorably discharged veterans for their household property. The exemptions begin at a 25% of the valuation in 2027 and increase by 25% each subsequent year until 2030. Such veterans shall receive a full exemption in 2030. The exemption shall also be extended to include all honorably discharged veterans and unremarried surviving spouses.
