22 Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to include individual
23 consumer claims or transactions involving a retail customer of goods
24 or services who uses or intends to use such goods or services

1 primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; provided,
2 however, this paragraph shall not be construed to preclude the court
3 from exercising jurisdiction over mass actions or class actions
4 involving such individual consumer claims.

5 E. A business court shall have supplemental jurisdiction over
6 any other claim related to a case or controversy within the court's 7 jurisdiction that forms part of the same case or controversy. If a

10 the district court.

11 F. A business court shall not have authority to exercise

5 7. Personal injury and wrongful death;

6 8. Domestic relations;

7 9. Foreclosures;

8 10. Individual consumer claims or transactions involving a 9 retail customer of goods or services who uses or intends to use such 10 goods or services primarily for personal, family, or household
11 purposes; provided, however, this paragraph shall not be construed
12 to preclude the court from exercising jurisdiction over mass actions
13 or class actions involving such individual consumer claims;

14 11. Collections in matters involving a corporation or other 15 entity subject to the farming and ranching statutes of this state or 16 an individual farmer; or

21 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

22 A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no action shall 23 be eligible to be filed, transferred, or removed to a business court

1 F of Section 6 of this act, actions shall be brought before the 2 business court as follows:

3 1. An action within the subject matter jurisdiction of the 4 business court may be filed in the business court. An action that 5 arises in a county located within the jurisdiction of the United 6 States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma shall be 7 filed in Business Court Division I; an action that arises in a
8 county located within the jurisdiction of the United States District
9 Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma or Eastern District of 10 Oklahoma shall be filed in Business Court Division II. Venue may be 11 established as provided by law or, if a written contract specifies a 12 county as venue for the action, as provided by the contract;

13 2. If the business court determines it does not have 14 jurisdiction over the action, the business court shall:

15 a. transfer the action to a district court in a county
16 with jurisdiction over the action, or

17 b. dismiss the action without prejudice to the rights of 18 the parties; and

19 3. If the business court determines that the venue is improper

11 removal shall be filed:

12 1. Not later than thirty (30) days after the date the party
13 requesting removal of the action discovered, or reasonably should 14 have discovered, facts establishing the business court's 15 jurisdiction over the action; provided, however, in no event shall a 16 party have less than the amount of time to respond to the action
17 than to remove to the business court; or

18 2. If an application for temporary injunction is pending on the 19 date the party requesting removal of the action discovered, or 20 reasonably should have discovered, facts establishing the business
21 court's jurisdiction over the action, not later than thirty (30)
22 days after the date the application is granted, denied, or denied as 23 a matter of law.

1 D. The notice of removal shall be filed with the business court
2 and the district court in which the action was originally filed. On 3 receipt of the notice, the clerk of the court in which the action
4 was originally filed shall immediately transfer the action to the 5 business court in accordance with the Oklahoma Pleading Code, 6 Section 2001 et seq. of Title 12 of the Oklahoma Statutes, and the 7 court clerk shall assign the action to the appropriate division of 8 the business court.

9 E. Unless otherwise provided in this section, all pleadings
10 shall be governed by the Oklahoma Pleading Code.

11 SECTION 8. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
12 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 91.7e of Title 20, unless there
13 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

14 A. A jury trial may be reserved by a party if claimed within a 15 time period established by law. A jury trial conducted by the

18 if removed, or in any county of proper jurisdiction if originally 19 filed in a business court.

20 B. Non-jury trials in a business court shall be resolved within 21 twelve (12) months of the filing of the action. The twelve-month
22 disposition schedule may be extended if both parties agree to a 23 longer resolution period, or upon a finding by the business court of 24 extraordinary cause for such an extension, which shall be appealable

1 to the Supreme Court. An extension shall be memorialized in writing
2 by all parties and approved by the court.

3 SECTION 9. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
4 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 91.7f of Title 20, unless there
5 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

6 A. The Supreme Court shall provide for electronic filing of 7 documents in the business courts of this state and shall promulgate
8 rules for the filing of documents transmitted by electronic devices.
